STUDY ABROAD

Quebec, Canada: The Walking Studio Montréal -2024

The Walking Studio: Montréal introduced students to hands-on methods and applied theories for art-based fieldwork, locational engagement, and socially-responsible practices. By studying at Montréal's landmark cultural sites, including public art spaces, galleries, museums, city parks, and archives, students explored how the material conditions of urban identity can become both sites and subjects of contemporary art. Along the way, students developed art and/or art history research projects as they moved through the city, responding to Montréal's material and environmental conditions and social formations.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE (Instructor of Record)

Studio Art Topics - Drawing Our Lives in Biophilia, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, Fall 2024

I designed this special topics course to seek connections between the human body, human nature, and our world. We explore drawing as a means of discovering and expressing connections within a community. We create conceptual drawings based on research on the biophilia effect and the benefits of reconnecting with our complete ecosystems and finding nature in art for human sake.

Introduction to Drawing, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, Spring 2024

I developed the syllabus for this course to build fundamental skills and techniques in drawing, emphasizing creative expression, perception, and composition for non-art students in the general university seeking an appreciation and heightened understanding of art and art practices. Students gained experience and direct knowledge from hands-on exploration of various drawing media.

Introduction to Drawing, Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, Fall 2023

Drawing into Color and Paint, The International Music & Fine Art Camp, International Peace Gardens, North Dakota, Summer 2011

IMC Classroom instruction for multiple age groups, up to twenty per session, teaching technique, and history. Responsible for syllabus creation, working remotely most of the year to communicate needs. Implemented various teaching methods such as lectures, discussions, and demonstrations, plus used the ability to assess and personally instruct based on the needs of each student.

Accommodated special needs students to guarantee inclusion and access to high-quality educational opportunities. Handled procurement processes and priced supply kits for project management and student budgeting. Curated and hung student salon-style annual exhibitions

Beginning Drawing, The International Music & Fine Art Camp, International Peace Gardens, North Dakota, Summer 2010

Watercolor Exploration, The International Music & Fine Art Camp, International Peace Gardens, North Dakota, Summer 2009

Beginning Drawing, The International Music & Fine Art Camp, International Peace Gardens, North Dakota, Summer 2006

Beginning Drawing, The International Music & Fine Art Camp, International Peace Gardens, North Dakota, Summer 2005

Drawing 2, Drawing into Color, Heartland Community College, Mclean County Art Center, Bloomington, Illinois, Spring 2004

Heartland Community College, Mclean County Art Center, Bloomington, Illinois
MCAC Classroom instruction ages eighteen and up, up to twelve per session, teaching technique and history. Responsible for syllabus creation and supply management. Met enrollment thresholds and created second-level classes to meet new demand. Implemented various teaching methods such as lectures, discussions, and demonstrations, plus used the ability to assess and personally instruct based on each student's needs to complete all course expectations. Handled procurement processes and priced supply kits for project management and student budgeting.

Drawing 2, Drawing into Color, Heartland Community College, Mclean County Art Center, Bloomington, Illinois, Fall 2003

TEACHING EXPERIENCE (Teaching Assistant)

Studio Art BFA Practicum (Lecture), Assisted Courtney Kessel, Ohio University, Fall 2024
Preparation for senior presentation and portfolio. Requirement for all BFA studio Majors. BFA major and Sr only.

Description + Drawing (Online Facilitator), Assisted Basil Masri Zadi, Ohio University, Fall 2024

This course introduces drawing and other descriptive processes as an expansive practice for developing perceptual and conceptual thinking skills. Various methods of image-making, three-dimensional modeling, and data mapping will be used as tools for observation and expression. Students will develop expressive, communicative, and analytical capabilities through hands-on exposure to materials and methods.

Art & Hip Hop (Online Facilitator), Assisted John Sabraw, Ohio University, Spring 2023
Hip-hop culture has profoundly influenced art since the 1970s. Art and Hip Hop explores this phenomenon within the context of traditional and contemporary art, polyculturalism and multiculturalism, activism and politics, and gender and race.

Function + Practice, Assisted Anna Raflowski, Ohio University Spring 2023

Students investigate modes of creative research and art and design methodologies to inform and expand their practice. Their concepts and designs are transformed through tool explorations, shifting modalities, technology application, and material experimentation. This course explores the physical, metaphorical, and cultural significance of art and design's function in society through various exercises.

Image + Design, Assisted Erin Dellasega, Ohio University, Spring 2023

This course explores the production and design of representative, abstract, and symbolic images. Students will be introduced to lens-based, digital, and analog processes for creating imagery, exploring various techniques and technologies, and applications of color theory. Through studying image systems and cultural contexts, students will develop skills for multiple modes of image-making in art and design, an understanding of their expressive potentials, and the role of interpretation and critical analysis of images within a contemporary context.

Description + Drawing, Assisted, Selena Loomis, Ohio University, Fall 2022

Description + Drawing, Assisted Haley Kean, Ohio University, Fall 2022

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Production Intern, Kennedy Museum of Art- May 2024-August 2024

The production intern at the Kennedy Museum collaborates with staff on exhibition-driven projects, organizes and maintains the preparation rooms, performs tasks related to exhibition preparation from simple to complex, and assists with additional management of the museum's collection of over 9,000 unique pieces.

- Work hands-on in museum operations, curatorial work, exhibition development, visitor engagement, and digitizing collections.
- Gain insights into the Museum's diverse audiences, including adults, children, teens, college students, community organizations, educators, families, and general visitors.
- This provided me with valuable insight into the museum field and contributed knowledge and experience to the engagement of projects at the museum for their benefit.

In addition to my core role within the KMA, I also supported the Tablertown People of Color Museum by creating a 3-year plan of action, including the utilization of existing work-study programs available through Ohio University, providing a list of prioritized grants and actions to take to build a digitized record of their collection, fund assistance to care for the collection, and begin expansion of the organization and become more sustainable for the future.

Founder/ Administrator/ Curator, SēD Alternative Gallery & Lab, Chauncey, Ohio, March 2023-Present

Its mission is to foster creativity, build connections as a bridge between artists and the community, and enhance the cultural landscape of its village and its neighboring villages through the arts.

Key objectives include-

- utilizing arts and culture to strengthen those connections

- increase community participation in the arts
- and provide a platform for local artists to collaborate, experiment, and share their work

Artist Studio Assistant worked with Artist Harold Boyd, Bloomington, Illinois, 2002-2003
Assisted with various projects and studio maintenance and handled IT prep and service.

Specialty Coach, Trainer, and Manager, Best Buy- Portland, Oregon, Gresham, Oregon, Vancouver, Washington, Bloomington, Illinois, Chicagoland Area, Illinois, 2004-2022

- I created a training and mentoring program for aspiring leaders and an Employee Leadership Forum. I have trained and Managed specialized sales and service fulfillment teams in-store and in the field. I have also organized, created, and maintained needs-based scheduling for staff, appointments, and services.
- I created a new role as a Specialty Coach to perform specialized Assessments and Training programs for new management in the Specialty Sales Manager role and for poor-performing locations to assist in problem-solving, retraining, and recognition. Advocate for multiple tests and initiatives in both sales and services, training local and regional leadership through single and multiple-day sessions.
- I collaborated with multiple corporate networks for in-the-field partnerships in test markets, new processes, troubleshooting, field communications and feedback, strategy, marketing, data privacy, and drive time preparation. I communicated with, trained, and developed curriculum for and/or partnered with corporate partners, regional leaders, multiple vendors, whole stores, and departments.
- I fought for job growth, access, diversity, and inclusion at a time when the company was too conservative and patriarchal to make changes to match demographics and meet the demands of clients where they live.

ART ADMINISTRATION- S&D ALTERNATIVE GALLERY & LAB EXHIBITS

The Duality of Knowing, Artists Emily Van Meter and Jailei Maas

Dual Honors Tutorial College Thesis Exhibition at S&D Alternative Gallery featured the paintings they have created for their respective art history and studio art theses.

ALIVE | In Different Forms, Final Workshop Exhibit

An exhibit of works by BA and BFA seniors in the School of Art + Design, Professor Angela Sprunger

Nostalgia Unframed: Artist's Cut, An Art Exhibition: The Convergence of Analog and Digital, Final exhibition for Digital Painting and Drawing class, organized by Brooke Ripley and Chad Robert Collofello, assisted by Douglas MacDowell.

Retro-spective: A Journey Through Artistic Evolution, Organized by Chad Robert Collofello

This artistic exploration invited the audience to wander the creative evolution of these talented artists before they launched onto their academic journey in Graduate School. It is a unique showcase of the earlier works of these accomplished individuals, providing a glimpse into the roots that have shaped their current artistic expressions.

2023

Lo-Fi Holiday Beats, Pop-Up Support by Artist Christopher St. John
Ohio University Grad students got together to organize a super sweet holiday pop-up exhibit at the S&D gallery.

Pop-up- FunnyART: An ExHAHAbtion, Final Workshop Exhibit
Artist/ Instructor Brooke Ripley's Description and Drawing course created an experimental exhibition for Ohio University Art Foundations Students. This humorous "ExHAHAbtion" is the final assignment for the course, meant to be absurd, ironic, realistic, and drawn in multiple mediums, as long as it is "funny."

Remedies of the Future, Guest Curator Brooke Ripley
Artist Brooke Ripley organized artistic, creative solutions to the environmental crisis and its consequences, courtesy of the Original Works Grant from the Graduate College at Ohio University. Public exhibitions supporting our local artists and communities are a form of stewardship. Whether for one another or our environment, stewardship is a remedy for the future.

Interspatial, Selected works from Solo Exhibits, Artist Chad Robert Collofello.
Collofello's vibrant, sometimes surreal art in "Isolates" was inspired by his interest in environment, relationships, and connections. His work explores memory, interrelationships, and interconnectivity and often conveys a message of concern for our future.
